Community Use of School Facilities

Policy

It is the policy of The Bridgewater School District to support the community use of school facilities in ways that complement regular school activities.

Implementation

1. School activities take precedence over all other uses of facilities.
2. Authorization to use school facilities does not imply endorsement or approval of any group or activity.
3. The Principal shall be responsible for establishing criteria for the use of school facilities by community members. Whenever community members use school facilities pursuant to this policy they shall comply with the accompanying procedures.
